

stumble upon a numbers racket in Omaha. You might stumble upon the fact that now you are in the area controlling the bookies that are operating pretty much at will throughout the state. You might stumble upon the fact that the illegal gambling interests really kind of run the whole area of gambling and that you were, if you would start controlling it and regulating it, able to get it under control but if you wait too long you are not. I think you should revive the bill. I think the committee should study the issue over the summer and I think maybe in January we will all know a lot more about the issue and that is all we are asking you to do, revive the bill and try to find out what is really happening.
